

Status

1958 - Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards

This page is updated whenever the UNCITRAL Secretariat is informed of changes in status of the Convention.

Readers are also advised to consult the United Nations Treaty Collection for authoritative status information on UNCITRAL Conventions deposited with the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

The UNCITRAL Secretariat also prepares yearly a document containing the Status of Conventions and Enactments of UNCITRAL Model Laws, which is available on the web page of the corresponding UNCITRAL Commission session .

Parties: 143

(a) Declarations and reservations. This State will apply the Convention only to recognition and enforcement of awards made in the territory of another contracting State.

(b) Declarations and reservations. This State will apply the Convention only to differences arising out of legal relationships, whether contractual or not, that are considered commercial under the national law.

(c) On 10 February 1976, Denmark declared that the Convention shall apply to the Faeroe Islands and Greenland.

(d) On 24 April 1964, the Netherlands declared that the Convention shall apply to the Netherlands Antilles.

(e) Declarations and reservations. With regard to awards made in the territory of non-contracting States, this State will apply the Convention only to the extent to which those States grant reciprocal treatment.

(f) Declarations and reservations. This State will apply the Convention only to those arbitral awards which were adopted after the entry into effect of the Convention.

(g) The United Kingdom extended the territorial application of the Convention, for the case of awards made only in the territory of another contracting State, to the following territories: Gibraltar (24 September 1975), Isle of Man (22 February 1979), Bermuda (14 November 1979), Cayman Islands (26 November 1980), Guernsey (19 April 1985), Jersey (28 May 2002).

(h) Declarations and reservations. Canada declared that it would apply the Convention only to differences arising out of legal relationships, whether contractual or not, that were considered commercial under the laws of Canada, except in the case of the Province of Quebec, where the law did not provide for such limitation.

(i) This State will not apply the Convention to differences where the subject matter of the
